

A photograph of a brick wall with ivy leaves and a cluster of snowdrops in the foreground. The text is centered on the wall.

The Approach of Spring

alix lawson
LONDON

I feel like I'm finally, truly welcoming spring! Seeing the first buds of blossom on bare branches is just the lift we all need at this time of year. There's a natural busyness in spring as it's a time of new beginnings - synonymous with hope and filled with promise.

Our Koishi collection, is a nod to freshness and a sense of renewal. The fabrics are a boucle in four fresh shades of white, cream and greens all named after natural elements: Pearl, Salt, Forest and Sage. The shades echo the natural landscape around the spring equinox. These are the fresh greens of shoots emerging from the earth and the unblemished whites of snowdrops or blossom buds forming on old apple trees.

The fabric is ideal for upholstery, easy to style and suited to all types of interiors-whether in the English countryside, a Balearic villa or a London apartment. As with all Alix Lawson Home ranges, the Koishi collection has a muted, understated tonality which means it can live harmoniously alongside other fabrics within the existing collections.

Alix
/x

Koishi

A boucle with a firm, richly-textured finish making it ideal for upholstery.

alix lawson
LONDON

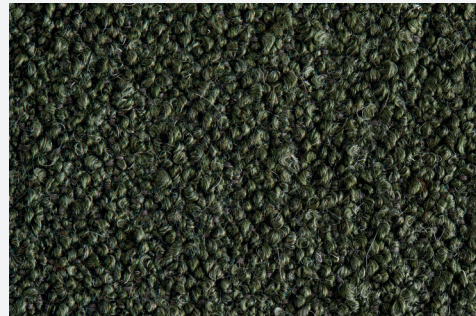

Pearl

Sage

Salt

Forest

Available in 4 colourways
30% polyacrylic, 29% polyester, 26% wool and 15% cotton Width 140cm - 55.1 inches

alix lawson
LONDON

alix lawson
LONDON

www.alixlawson.com